

MEDIA
ANNOUNCEMENT
Robert Adams, CEO,
Australian Industry
Standards Limited

The Hon Luke Hartsuyker MP, the Minister for Vocational Education and Skills today announced the five organisations selected as Skills Service Organisations (SSO) to work with Industry Reference Committees to develop modern and relevant training packages.

The five organisations who will work with the Industry Reference Committees are:

- Australian Industry Standards Limited
- Artibus Innovation
- PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC)
- Skills Impact Limited
- SkillsIQ

Link to Minister's Announcement – <https://ministers.education.gov.au/hartsuyker/new-skills-service-organisations-announced>

I am delighted to confirm that Australian Industry Standards Limited is the new business name for TLISC and I will shortly be in a position to provide more details about the operation of the SSO and our initial plans to engage with and support our Industry Reference Committees.

If you visit the link below you can see the how the various Training Packages and Industry Reference Committees have been allocated to the new Skills Service Organisations.

Link to Skills Service Organisations – <https://www.education.gov.au/skills-service-organisations>

If you have any questions about the announcement and or Australian Industry Standards Limited please contact me – 03 9604 7200 or email communications@tlisc.org.au

You can also request more information through the Department of Education and Training media centre – media@education.gov.au

Robert Adams
CEO
Australian Industry Standards